

I've got a little TWIST

NEW YORK GILBERT & SULLIVAN PLAYERS

I've got a little TWIST

NEW YORK GILBERT & SULLIVAN PLAYERS

Where Broadway meets Gilbert & Sullivan

*"well paced and extremely entertaining.
The singing is first rate. And it's quite funny."*

- talkentertainment.com

It's where The Mikado meets The Music Man.
Where the HMS Pinafore sets sail for Brigadoon.
Where The Pirates of Penzance
take shore leave On the Town.

It's I've Got a Little Twist—a one-of-a-kind show that proves the Gilbert & Sullivan repertoire is as fun, fresh, and full-of-life as, well, three little maids from school! See for yourself as New York Gilbert & Sullivan Players celebrates the legacy of Gilbert & Sullivan in American musical theater, featuring favorites from Rodgers & Hammerstein, Bernstein, Sondheim, Lerner & Loewe, Meredith Willson, and Jerry Herman. Life is a cabaret and so is this show—and as we all know, it's always more entertaining when you add a little twist.

"New York Gilbert & Sullivan Players mission statement is 'giving vitality to the living legacy of Gilbert & Sullivan.' 'I've Got a Little Twist' does just this and in the process gives one of the freshest and most heartfelt performances that I've seen the company do in years."

- Daniel Kelley, nytheatre.com

Under the supervision of Artistic Director Albert Bergeret, I've Got a Little Twist is written and directed by David Auxier, and features, Daniel Greenwood, Sarah Caldwell Smith, Stephen Quint, Angela Christine Smith, David Wannan and Mr. Auxier. Mark York is the arranger, musical director and pianist.

GILBERT & SULLIVAN ST

BROADWAY

